(c) whether there have been any instances during the last three years where foreign contributions have been spent for purposes other than the declared and allowed purposes and activities of the said organisations/ political parties; if so, the details thereof and action taken in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MOHD. MAQBOOL DAR): (a) to (c) The Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 1976 seeks to regulate, inter-alia, the acceptance and utilisation of foreign contribution.

Section 4(1) of the Act provides that no foreign contribution shall be accepted by any political party or office-bearer thereof. According to section 5(1) of the Act, no organisation of a political nature, not being a political party, shall accept any foreign contribution except with the prior permission of the Central Government. According to section 6 of the Act, associations having a definite cultural, economic, educational, religious or social programme can accept foreign contribution after registering themselves with the Central Government or after obtaining prior permission of the Central Government.

Associations / organisations so registered or permitted are required to submit annual returns in the prescribed form giving details of receipt and utilisaiton of foreign contribution. A Monitoring Unit set up by the Government monitors the receipt of foreign contribution and submission of returns by associations and undertakes inspections, wherever required. If any violation of the provisions of the Act comes to notice during scrutiny of accounts or inspection, action under the provisions of the Act is taken against defaulting associations.

According to information available,eight remittances aggregating to Rs. 3.75 crores were received by the Indian National Congress from abroad during 1993 to 1995. Certain details have been sought from the said party in connection with this matter for further necessary action.
